

CEIL

Meaning: To ceil means to cover or finish the ceiling of a room or space, often for aesthetic or functional purposes.

1. The artist decided to ceil the room with intricate woodwork to enhance its elegance.
2. They used a special material to ceil the basement, ensuring it was soundproof.
3. After the renovation, the architect was proud of how they managed to ceil the space effectively.
4. To brighten the atmosphere, they painted the ceiling a vibrant shade of blue.
5. The old building had a beautifully painted ceil that reminded visitors of its historic charm.
6. She stood on the ladder, carefully measuring the height before she began to ceil the new addition.
7. The professionals worked swiftly to ceil the gymnasium, transforming its appearance completely.
8. During the inspection, they noted that the ceiling needed repairs due to water damage.
9. He felt a sense of accomplishment as he finally managed to ceil the attic without any help.
10. The new design included a modern style that elegantly ceiled the living room.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ceil>