

CEINT

Meaning: To ceint means to adorn or embellish an object, typically by applying a decorative element or border.

1. The artist decided to ceint the canvas with a bold stroke of vibrant red.
2. To ceint the delicate porcelain vase, the craftsmen used a fine gold filigree.
3. The ancient manuscript was carefully ceinted with a protective layer of wax.
4. Her dress was ceinted with intricate embroidery that caught everyone's eye.
5. The delicate lace was ceinted around the edges of the handkerchief.
6. He chose to ceint his speech with a personal anecdote to engage the audience.
7. The architect designed the building to ceint the surrounding landscape beautifully.
8. The jewel was ceinted in a way that highlighted its brilliant facets.
9. They decided to ceint the garden with a low stone wall for added charm.
10. The film's breathtaking visuals ceint the emotional depth of the storyline perfectly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ceint>