

CELLULATED

Meaning: Cellulated: characterized by having small, cell-like structures or compartments.

1. The botanist examined the cellulated structure of the plant under the microscope.
2. Her artwork featured a cellulated texture that added depth to the canvas.
3. The scientist noted that the cellulated surface increased the absorption of light.
4. During the experiment, they discovered that the cellulated layers enhanced the material's strength.
5. The new packaging design included a cellulated pattern to improve grip and durability.
6. In nature, many organisms exhibit cellulated forms that serve specific ecological functions.
7. The architect appreciated the aesthetic appeal of the cellulated walls in the modern building.
8. The research paper highlighted the significance of cellulated tissues in biological processes.
9. He described the cellulated appearance of the coral as a marvel of marine life.
10. Her description of the cellulated fabric captured the interest of the fashion designers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cellulated>