

CELLULIFEROUS

Meaning: Celluliferous: possessing or containing cellulose, particularly in relation to plant tissues and structures.

1. The scientist focused on the celluliferous properties of the plant material in her research.
2. In biology class, we learned about the celluliferous tissues that contribute to the structure of certain organisms.
3. The discovery of celluliferous fungi has opened new avenues in the field of biotechnology.
4. Her expertise in celluliferous structures made her a valuable asset to the research team.
5. The celluliferous nature of the algae was a key factor in its ability to thrive in various environments.
6. Researchers are exploring the potential of celluliferous biomass as a sustainable energy source.
7. The architect incorporated celluliferous elements into the design to enhance the building's sustainability.
8. Understanding the celluliferous characteristics of crops can lead to improved agricultural practices.
9. The study examined how different environmental factors affect the growth of celluliferous plants.
10. His presentation on celluliferous organisms captivated the audience with its depth and clarity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/celluliferous>