

CELLULOID

Meaning: Celluloid is a transparent, flammable thermoplastic derived from cellulose, historically used in the production of film, photographic plates, and various items like toys.

1. Celluloid was once a popular material for making film and photographic plates.
2. The antique toys made of celluloid are highly sought after by collectors.
3. She admired the vibrant colors of the celluloid buttons displayed in the shop.
4. Celluloid was revolutionary for its time, providing a lightweight alternative to ivory.
5. The filmmaker opted for celluloid over digital to achieve a vintage aesthetic in his movie.
6. Due to its flammability, celluloid is now carefully handled in archival settings.
7. The use of celluloid in early animation gave characters a distinct, lively movement.
8. Researchers are exploring biodegradable alternatives to traditional celluloid materials.
9. Restorers took great care to preserve the fragile celluloid film from the early 1900s.
10. The museum showcased a display of celluloid artifacts from the late 19th century.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/celluloid>