

CEMENTATORY

Meaning: CEMENTATORY (adjective): pertaining to the process or materials that promote the binding or hardening of substances, especially in construction.

1. The cementatory process ensures that the materials bond effectively under pressure.
2. In the construction industry, a cementatory mixture is crucial for creating durable foundations.
3. Researchers are studying the cementatory properties of various compounds to improve building materials.
4. The cementatory action of the new formula was evident in its rapid setting time.
5. Proper mixing is essential for achieving optimal cementatory characteristics in concrete.
6. The cementatory nature of the mixture contributed to the longevity of the structure.
7. Innovations in cementatory technology have led to more environmentally friendly practices.
8. Understanding the cementatory reactions can enhance the quality of construction projects.
9. The engineer explained the importance of selecting appropriate cementatory agents for the job.
10. Cementatory solutions are vital for ensuring the integrity of large-scale infrastructure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cementatory>