

CEMENTITIOUS

Meaning: Cementitious refers to materials that have binding properties similar to cement, often used in construction and concrete production.

1. Cementitious materials are essential in modern construction for their binding properties.
2. The research focused on the development of new cementitious composites for eco-friendly buildings.
3. Cementitious mixtures can enhance the durability and strength of various structures.
4. Many engineers prefer using cementitious products due to their versatility in applications.
5. The project required a thorough understanding of the characteristics of cementitious substances.
6. Cementitious coatings are often applied to improve the water resistance of surfaces.
7. Innovations in cementitious technology are paving the way for sustainable architecture.
8. The environmental impact of cementitious materials has become a significant concern in the industry.
9. Cementitious behavior varies significantly based on the composition and curing conditions.
10. Architects often seek cementitious solutions to achieve specific aesthetic and structural goals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cementitious>