

CENSURABLE

Meaning: CENSURABLE: deserving of condemnation or criticism.

1. The politician's remarks were deemed censurable by many in the media.
2. Critics argued that the film contained censurable content that glorified violence.
3. In his report, the committee identified several censurable actions that warranted further investigation.
4. The teacher explained that behavior deemed censurable could lead to serious consequences.
5. Her decision to spread misinformation was widely considered censurable by her peers.
6. Many felt the athlete's comments were censurable and reflected poorly on the sport.
7. The editor had to decide whether the article's content was too censurable to publish.
8. In a democratic society, it is important to discuss what actions should be labeled as censurable.
9. The review highlighted several censurable practices within the organization that needed to change.
10. Despite the backlash, he stood by his censurable opinions, believing in the right to free speech.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/censurable>