

CENSURER

Meaning: CENSURER: a person or entity that criticizes, restricts, or monitors the expression of ideas or information.

1. The author felt stifled by the constant presence of the censorer in the room.
2. In a democracy, the role of the censorer must be carefully balanced with freedom of expression.
3. The film was heavily edited by the censorer, altering its original message significantly.
4. As a censorer, she took her job seriously, ensuring that all content met community standards.
5. His reputation as a strict censorer preceded him, making many hesitant to share their work.
6. The online platform was criticized for appointing a censorer who lacked transparency.
7. Many artists fear being judged harshly by a censorer who does not appreciate their style.
8. The censorer's changes sparked a debate about the limits of artistic freedom.
9. Despite being a censorer, he was known for his open-mindedness and willingness to listen.
10. Censorship often leads to the emergence of underground movements resisting the censorer's influence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/censurer>