

CENTENNIALLY

Meaning: Centennially means occurring once every hundred years.

1. The city hosts a festival centennially to celebrate its founding.
2. Traditions that are celebrated centennially often carry deep historical significance.
3. The museum showcases artifacts that are displayed centennially, drawing large crowds.
4. Centennially, the university revisits its history through special lectures and events.
5. Artists are commissioned to create new works centennially, reflecting on past influences.
6. The centennially held parade features floats that represent different eras of the community.
7. Centennially, the scientific community gathers to discuss advancements in their field.
8. The centennially published anthology highlights the best literature from the past hundred years.
9. Local historians prepare presentations centennially to educate the public about their heritage.
10. Many cultures mark significant events centennially, reinforcing their identity and traditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/centennially>