

CENTIPED

Meaning: A centiped is a long, multi-legged arthropod belonging to the class Chilopoda, known for its swift movement and venomous bite.

1. The centiped scuttled across the damp forest floor, its numerous legs moving in perfect harmony.
2. She screamed when she found a centiped lurking in her shoe, its long body coiled and ready to strike.
3. In the terrarium, the centiped curled up defensively, its segmented body shimmering under the light.
4. He marveled at the centiped's speed as it darted away from his reaching hand.
5. The centiped is often mistaken for a millipede, but its distinct features set it apart.
6. While hiking, I stumbled upon a giant centiped, its vibrant colors contrasting with the earthy surroundings.
7. The centiped's venom is potent, making it a formidable predator in the insect world.
8. I carefully removed the centiped from the house, releasing it back into the wild.
9. In folklore, centipeds are often associated with misfortune and fear due to their eerie appearance.
10. Observing the centiped crawl along the leaf was a fascinating reminder of nature's diversity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/centiped>