

CENTRALISM

Meaning: Centralism is the political principle or practice of concentrating power and authority in a central governing body, often at the expense of regional or local autonomy.

1. Centralism often leads to a concentration of power within a single authority.
2. Many political theorists debate the merits and drawbacks of centralism versus federalism.
3. In a centralized system, decision-making is streamlined but may overlook local needs.
4. The rise of centralism in the government has sparked protests among regional leaders.
5. Centralism can foster uniform policies, but it may stifle regional innovation.
6. Some economists argue that centralism can hinder economic growth by limiting competition.
7. The shift towards centralism in education policy has raised concerns among educators.
8. Her advocacy for centralism was met with resistance from those who favored decentralization.
9. Centralism can create efficiencies but also risks alienating diverse populations.
10. The historical context of centralism in this country reveals deep-rooted tensions between regions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/centralism>