

CENTRALIZE

Meaning: To centralize means to consolidate control or operations in a single location or authority to enhance efficiency and coordination.

1. The company decided to centralize its operations to improve efficiency.
2. To streamline communication, we will centralize the decision-making process.
3. The government plans to centralize healthcare services to ensure equal access for all citizens.
4. By choosing to centralize authority, the organization hopes to reduce conflicts among departments.
5. Many tech firms aim to centralize data management for better security and control.
6. The school district decided to centralize their resources to provide better support for students.
7. In an effort to centralize their marketing strategy, they hired a new creative director.
8. To enhance collaboration, we should centralize our project management tools.
9. The city council voted to centralize parking regulations to make enforcement easier.
10. Centralizing our inventory management will help us reduce costs and improve accuracy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/centralize>