

CENTROLINEAD

Meaning: Centrolinead refers to a design or arrangement characterized by alignment along a central line, enhancing functionality or aesthetics, such as maximizing natural light in architecture or organizing cellular structures in biology.

1. The centrolinead design of the building allowed for optimal natural light to flood the interior.
2. In biology, centrolinead refers to the arrangement of certain cellular structures along a central line.
3. The artist chose a centrolinead approach to create balance and symmetry in her composition.
4. During the presentation, the engineer explained how a centrolinead layout improves efficiency in manufacturing.
5. The centrolinead pattern of the waves created a mesmerizing visual effect at the beach.
6. His centrolinead method of organizing data made it easier for the team to analyze trends.
7. The architect was praised for incorporating centrolinead principles into the landscape design.
8. In her research paper, she highlighted the importance of centrolinead formations in ecological systems.
9. The centrolinead symmetry of the sculpture drew the attention of everyone in the gallery.
10. She used a centrolinead technique in her dance choreography to enhance the visual flow of the performance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/centrolinead>