

CEPEVOROUS

Meaning: Cepevorous: adjective describing an organism that feeds on or consumes cephalopods or similar marine creatures.

1. The cephalous creature exhibited cepevorous tendencies, devouring anything in its path.
2. Scientists studied the cepevorous habits of the newly discovered species in the deep sea.
3. In the lush forest, the cepevorous plant attracted insects with its sweet nectar.
4. The cepevorous behavior of the predator ensured its survival in the competitive ecosystem.
5. Her fascination with cepevorous organisms led her to a career in marine biology.
6. During the expedition, they documented various cepevorous interactions among the species.
7. The documentary highlighted the cepevorous nature of certain insects in the desert environment.
8. As the cepevorous fish swam through the coral reef, it showcased its unique hunting skills.
9. The researchers were amazed by the cepevorous adaptations that had evolved in this isolated habitat.
10. In folklore, the cepevorous beast was a symbol of insatiable hunger and greed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cepevorous>