

CEPHALALGIC

Meaning: Cephalalgic refers to symptoms or conditions related to or characterized by headaches.

1. The cephalalgic symptoms often worsened with stress and lack of sleep.
2. She described her cephalalgic episodes as debilitating and frequent.
3. Doctors recommended various treatments to manage her cephalalgic condition.
4. His cephalalgic pain was so intense that he struggled to concentrate on work.
5. After several tests, the doctor confirmed that the cephalalgic episodes were migraine-related.
6. She kept a journal to track the triggers of her cephalalgic attacks.
7. The cephalalgic nature of his discomfort made it difficult for him to participate in social activities.
8. Many patients find relief from cephalalgic pain through lifestyle changes and medication.
9. During the cephalalgic episode, she preferred to remain in a dark, quiet room.
10. Understanding the cephalalgic symptoms can lead to better management strategies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cephalgic>