

CERAMICS

Meaning: Ceramics refers to objects made from clay and other raw materials that are shaped and fired at high temperatures, typically used for functional or decorative purposes.

1. The artist showcased her stunning ceramics at the local gallery.
2. Ceramics have been used for thousands of years to create both functional and decorative objects.
3. Students in the art class eagerly experimented with different techniques for shaping ceramics.
4. The museum's exhibit on ancient ceramics revealed fascinating insights into past cultures.
5. She enrolled in a workshop to learn how to glaze her handmade ceramics.
6. Ceramics can be both beautiful and practical, serving as dinnerware or decorative art.
7. The potter's wheel spun effortlessly as she crafted her latest piece of ceramics.
8. Innovative ceramics are now being developed for use in technology and engineering.
9. The texture and color of the ceramics added a warm touch to the room's decor.
10. Collecting ceramics can be a rewarding hobby, connecting enthusiasts with history and artistry.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ceramics>