

CEREMONIALLY

Meaning: Ceremonially means in a manner that is formal and ritualistic, often associated with a specific ceremony or celebration.

1. The bride and groom ceremonially exchanged their vows under a floral arch.
2. At the award ceremony, the winners were ceremonially presented with their trophies.
3. The ancient tribe ceremonially danced around the fire to celebrate the harvest.
4. He ceremonially unveiled the new statue in front of the gathered crowd.
5. The delegates ceremonially signed the peace treaty to mark the end of the conflict.
6. Each year, the community ceremonially honors its veterans at a special event.
7. The king was ceremonially crowned in a grand ceremony attended by dignitaries.
8. She ceremonially lit the candle to symbolize the beginning of the celebration.
9. The students were ceremonially inducted into the honor society during a formal event.
10. They ceremonially blessed the new building before it was opened to the public.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ceremonially>