

CERTAIN

Meaning: Certain: confident in one's belief or knowledge; specific or particular in reference.

1. I am certain that we will succeed in our project.
2. There are certain rules that must be followed in the competition.
3. She felt a certain excitement as she entered the new city.
4. He was certain of his feelings and decided to express them.
5. Certain factors can influence the outcome of the experiment.
6. They have a certain charm that makes them appealing to everyone.
7. I am not certain if I can attend the meeting tomorrow.
8. There is a certain level of trust required in any relationship.
9. With certain investments, the risks can outweigh the benefits.
10. Her expression revealed a certain disappointment in the results.
11. I am certain that we will succeed if we work together.
12. There are certain rules that must be followed in this competition.
13. She had a certain charm that captivated everyone in the room.
14. I am not certain of the exact time the meeting will start.
15. Certain individuals in the community have raised concerns about the new policy.
16. The recipe calls for certain ingredients that may be hard to find.
17. He felt a certain sense of pride after completing the project.
18. I am certain she will make a great impression on the interview panel.
19. Certain aspects of the plan need to be revised before implementation.
20. It is certain that change is necessary for growth and improvement.
21. There are certain rules that must be followed during the experiment.
22. She felt a certain sense of relief after receiving the good news.

23. Certain people thrive under pressure, while others struggle.

24. He is certain that he left his keys on the kitchen counter.

25. The weather forecast is certain to change by the weekend.

26. I have certain expectations for the quality of the project.

27. There is a certain charm to the old neighborhood that I love.

28. Certain aspects of the proposal need further clarification.

29. She has a certain talent for making everyone feel welcome.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/certain>