

CESSPOOL

Meaning: Cesspool: a receptacle or situation that accumulates and harbors waste, filth, or undesirable elements, often leading to contamination or corruption.

1. The old abandoned factory had turned into a cesspool of waste and pollution.
2. His anger boiled over when he realized the city had allowed the neighborhood to become a cesspool of crime.
3. The stagnant water in the backyard became a cesspool, attracting mosquitoes and other pests.
4. Despite its beauty, the lake was a cesspool, filled with litter and toxic runoff.
5. She described the corrupt political system as a cesspool that needed to be drained.
6. The neglected public restroom had turned into a foul cesspool, driving away visitors.
7. In the heat of summer, the cesspool emitted an unbearable stench that filled the air.
8. The once vibrant community was now a cesspool of despair and neglect.
9. Environmentalists were alarmed to find the river had become a cesspool of industrial waste.
10. He felt as though his thoughts were a cesspool of negativity, dragging him down.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cesspool>