

CETYLIC

Meaning: CETYLIC refers to a type of fatty acid or compound derived from cetyl alcohol, commonly found in plant waxes and used as an emulsifier.

1. CETYLIC acid is commonly found in the waxy coatings of certain plants.
2. The researchers discovered that cetylic compounds can act as effective emulsifiers.
3. CETYLIC alcohol is often used in cosmetic formulations for its moisturizing properties.
4. She conducted experiments to analyze the stability of cetylic esters in various conditions.
5. The cetylic chain length significantly influences the solubility of the compound.
6. In biochemistry, cetylic derivatives can play a role in the synthesis of lipids.
7. CETYLIC substances are important in the production of surfactants for cleaning products.
8. The cetylic structure of the molecule was crucial for its biological activity.
9. He noted that cetylic wax has unique properties that make it suitable for candles.
10. CETYLIC compounds are frequently studied for their potential in medicinal applications.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cetylic>