

CHAFF

Meaning: Chaff refers to the husks and debris separated from grain during the threshing process, often considered worthless compared to the valuable grain.

1. The wind blew away the chaff, leaving only the golden grains behind.
2. During harvest, farmers separate the wheat from the chaff to ensure quality.
3. In the debate, much of his argument was chaff, lacking substance and clarity.
4. The chaff accumulated in the corners after the threshing machine did its work.
5. To find the truth, one must sift through the chaff of misinformation.
6. Her words were filled with chaff, distracting from the real issue at hand.
7. He learned to ignore the chaff and focus on the valuable feedback he received.
8. The festival featured a display of various grains, highlighting the contrast between wheat and chaff.
9. It's essential to remove the chaff in order to see the core ideas emerge clearly.
10. The old mill was covered in chaff, a reminder of the busy harvest season long past.
11. The wind scattered the chaff across the field after the harvest.
12. Farmers often separate the grain from the chaff to ensure quality.
13. He dismissed the chaff of gossip to focus on more important matters.
14. During the debate, she effortlessly cut through the chaff to address the real issues.
15. The old barn was filled with chaff and straw from years of farming.
16. In the digital age, it's important to sift through the chaff to find valuable information.
17. She felt overwhelmed by the chaff of everyday life, seeking a moment of clarity.
18. After hours of research, he was left with a pile of chaff and a few useful insights.
19. The movie was entertaining, but much of the plot felt like chaff to him.
20. Sifting through the chaff revealed some surprising gems in her writing.
21. The farmer separated the grain from the chaff before storage.

22. In her speech, she skillfully cut through the chaff to deliver her main message.
23. After reviewing the data, we need to discard the chaff to focus on the essential findings.
24. The old mill was filled with chaff, remnants of the harvest from years gone by.
25. He realized that much of the criticism was mere chaff and not constructive at all.
26. The debate turned into a battle of words, with much chaff and little substance.
27. She sifted through the chaff to find the valuable insights in the research paper.
28. The documentary aimed to reveal the truth, filtering out the chaff from sensationalism.
29. With careful analysis, they managed to distinguish the wheat from the chaff in the reports.
30. The artist's work was full of chaff, lacking the depth and meaning of true creativity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chaff>