

CHAFFER

Meaning: To chaffer means to engage in bargaining or negotiating, often over the price or quality of goods.

1. The farmer decided to chaffer with the local merchants to get a better price for his crops.
2. During the market day, he would often chaffer about the quality of the produce.
3. To save money, they planned to chaffer with the contractor before signing the renovation agreement.
4. She loved to chaffer over tea, discussing everything from politics to the latest novels.
5. When buying a used car, it's wise to chaffer with the seller to find out its true condition.
6. As the auction began, bidders would chaffer amongst themselves, trying to gauge the competition.
7. They spent the afternoon chaffering about the best places to travel next summer.
8. The two friends would often chaffer late into the night, sharing their dreams and fears.
9. In the marketplace, the vendors would chaffer loudly to attract customers to their stalls.
10. He enjoyed chaffering with his colleagues during lunch breaks, making work feel more enjoyable.
11. The merchant began to chaffer over the price of the rare artifact.
12. She loved to chaffer with her friends about their weekend plans.
13. During the market, vendors would often chaffer to attract more customers.
14. He was known to chaffer passionately about his favorite books.
15. They would chaffer for hours, discussing everything from politics to art.
16. In the bustling bazaar, it was common to hear people chaffer in several languages.
17. To get the best deals, she learned to chaffer confidently with the sellers.
18. Their ability to chaffer effortlessly made them popular among the locals.
19. He didn't just buy the car; he had to chaffer extensively before settling on a price.
20. Chaffering with the locals gave her insights into the culture and traditions.

21. The merchant decided to chaffer with the local farmers to get the best prices for their crops.
22. They spent hours in the market, eager to chaffer over the quality of the handmade crafts.
23. It's essential to chaffer before making a significant purchase to ensure you're getting a fair deal.
24. She was skilled at chaffering, always walking away with more than she initially planned to spend.
25. During the festival, vendors would chaffer excitedly, trying to attract the attention of passersby.
26. He loved to chaffer about the history of the antiques on display at the flea market.
27. The two friends would often chaffer about the latest trends in fashion and art.
28. To successfully chaffer, one must be both persuasive and knowledgeable about the item for sale.
29. They engaged in a friendly chaffer, sharing stories and negotiating terms for the upcoming project.
30. In the bustling bazaar, the sound of people chaffering filled the air with excitement and competition.
31. The merchant decided to chaffer over the price of the antique vase.
32. During the market day, the townsfolk would chaffer for hours to get the best deals.
33. They enjoyed to chaffer about their favorite books while sipping coffee at the café.
34. As he walked through the bazaar, he began to chaffer with the local artisans.
35. She loved to chaffer with her neighbors during their evening walks.
36. The two friends would often chaffer late into the night, sharing stories and laughter.
37. At the flea market, they chaffered with the sellers to lower the prices on vintage items.
38. It was common for fishermen to chaffer about their catch as they prepared for their next trip.
39. While waiting for the bus, they took the opportunity to chaffer about upcoming events.
40. The old men gathered on the porch to chaffer about life, reminiscing about the past.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chaffer>