

CHAFFERY

Meaning: Chaffery refers to scattered remnants of agricultural produce, such as straw or husks, left over from a harvest.

1. The old barn was filled with chaffery, remnants of last year's harvest scattered across the floor.
2. During the festival, the children enjoyed playing in the chaffery, imagining it was a magical land.
3. After the windstorm, the yard was littered with chaffery, remnants of the dried grass and straw.
4. He swept the chaffery away, making room for the new crop to grow in the garden.
5. In the countryside, the farmers often dealt with chaffery as they cleaned their equipment.
6. The chaffery from the grain processing created a mess that took hours to clean up.
7. As the sun set, the golden chaffery sparkled like tiny jewels in the fading light.
8. The chaffery served as a nesting material for the birds in the nearby trees.
9. She found herself lost in thought while sifting through the chaffery, reminiscing about her childhood.
10. The wind carried the chaffery away, scattering it across the field like nature's confetti.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chaffery>