

CHAGRIN

Meaning: Chagrin is a feeling of distress or embarrassment caused by a failure or disappointment.

1. She felt a deep sense of chagrin when she realized she had forgotten her best friend's birthday.
2. To his chagrin, he found that his favorite restaurant had closed down unexpectedly.
3. Her chagrin was evident when she discovered she had mispronounced the guest speaker's name.
4. Despite his chagrin at the mistake, he decided to laugh it off and move on.
5. The team's chagrin was palpable after losing the game in the final seconds.
6. He tried to hide his chagrin when he accidentally sent the email to the wrong person.
7. Her chagrin turned to determination as she vowed to do better next time.
8. With a mix of chagrin and amusement, she recalled her embarrassing childhood moments.
9. They watched in chagrin as their carefully laid plans fell apart due to unforeseen circumstances.
10. His chagrin was overshadowed by the support of his friends, who rallied around him.
11. To her chagrin, she discovered that her best friend had forgotten her birthday.
12. He felt a deep sense of chagrin when he realized he had missed the important meeting.
13. Despite his chagrin at being overlooked, he decided to congratulate the winner graciously.
14. The chagrin on her face was evident when she tripped in front of the audience.
15. Much to his chagrin, he found out that his biggest rival had received the promotion.
16. She could only watch in chagrin as her carefully laid plans unraveled before her eyes.
17. His chagrin turned to determination as he vowed to improve for the next competition.
18. The chagrin of losing the championship was overshadowed by the support of his teammates.
19. With a sigh of chagrin, he admitted he had miscalculated the budget for the project.
20. Her chagrin was palpable when she realized she had sent the email to the wrong recipient.
21. To his chagrin, the plans he had so carefully arranged fell apart at the last minute.

22. The chagrin of losing the game was evident on the players' faces as they walked off the field.
23. Despite her chagrin at being overlooked for the promotion, she maintained her professionalism.
24. His chagrin was palpable when he discovered he had mispronounced the guest's name during the introduction.
25. With chagrin, she accepted that her attempt at baking had resulted in a burnt disaster.
26. The teacher expressed her chagrin over the students' lack of preparation for the exam.
27. Looking back, he felt chagrin over the harsh words he had spoken in anger.
28. Her chagrin was softened by the laughter of her friends, who found the situation amusing.
29. Realizing he had missed the deadline, he sank into chagrin and frustration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chagrin>