

CHAK

Meaning: CHAK (noun): a sharp, crisp sound, often associated with a mechanical action or a sudden noise.

1. The sound of the door lock made a distinct chak that echoed through the empty hallway.
2. As the clock struck midnight, a soft chak filled the room, signaling the start of a new day.
3. She heard a chak from the kitchen, quickly realizing it was just the cat knocking over a cup.
4. The sudden chak of the metal gate startled everyone in the quiet garden.
5. With a quick flick of his wrist, he produced a satisfying chak as he snapped the rubber band.
6. The chak of the drumbeat resonated through the crowd, energizing the audience.
7. He paused when he heard a familiar chak in the distance, reminiscent of his childhood.
8. The artist's brush made a soft chak against the canvas, bringing her vision to life.
9. A gentle chak indicated that the old car was finally starting up after weeks of repairs.
10. The moment the ball hit the target, it made a sharp chak that drew everyone's attention.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chak>