

CHALK

Meaning: Chalk is a soft, white, porous sedimentary rock made primarily of calcium carbonate, commonly used in stick form for writing or drawing on surfaces like blackboards and pavements.

1. The teacher wrote the lesson on the blackboard using colorful chalk.
 2. Children often enjoyed drawing on the pavement with chalk during recess.
 3. She carefully powdered the chalk before using it to create detailed artwork.
 4. The faint smell of chalk filled the classroom as the students listened intently.
 5. He accidentally dropped the chalk, causing it to shatter into several pieces.
 6. After a long day of teaching, his fingers were dusted with chalk residue.
 7. Chalk is often used for outdoor games like hopscotch and four square.
 8. The artist preferred using chalk pastels for their vibrant colors and blendability.
 9. In ancient times, chalk was used as a primitive form of writing material.
 10. The chalkboard became a canvas for the student's creativity and imagination.
 11. The teacher wrote the math problems on the board with a piece of chalk.
 12. Children gathered around the playground to draw colorful pictures with chalk.
 13. After the rain, the chalk drawings on the sidewalk washed away completely.
 14. He carefully picked up the chalk and began sketching a landscape.
 15. The artist preferred using chalk for its vibrant colors and smooth texture.
 16. At the end of the class, the students were told to clean the chalkboard.
 17. She found a box of chalk in the art supplies that had been forgotten.
 18. The coach used chalk to mark the boundaries on the sports field.
 19. He always kept a few sticks of chalk in his pocket for impromptu note-taking.
 20. Chalk dust floated in the air as the teacher erased the board.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chalk>