

CHALLENGER

Meaning: A challenger is a person or entity that competes against others, particularly in a contest or market, often aiming to surpass or rival established leaders.

1. The new model quickly established itself as a serious challenger in the electric vehicle market.
2. As a seasoned athlete, she was always seeking a worthy challenger to push her limits.
3. The young entrepreneur emerged as a formidable challenger to the established tech giants.
4. In the world of chess, every grandmaster faces a challenger who can disrupt their strategy.
5. His reputation as a challenger of conventional wisdom earned him both admirers and critics.
6. The documentary highlighted the stories of underdogs who became unexpected challengers in their fields.
7. In the political arena, the incumbent must always be wary of a determined challenger.
8. Their rivalry began when one became the champion and the other the challenger.
9. This year's tournament featured several ambitious challengers ready to make their mark.
10. The fierce competition between the two brands showcased the essence of being a challenger in business.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/challenger>