

CHANCELLORSHIP

Meaning: Chancellorship refers to the office or position of a chancellor, particularly in an academic institution, characterized by leadership and administrative responsibilities.

1. The chancellorship of the university has seen many changes over the years.
2. After a long deliberation, she finally accepted the position of chancellorship.
3. His chancellorship was marked by significant reforms in the education system.
4. The responsibilities of the chancellorship include overseeing all university operations.
5. She campaigned vigorously for the chancellorship, promising greater transparency.
6. During her chancellorship, the institution gained international recognition.
7. The chancellorship is often viewed as a stepping stone to higher political office.
8. Critics argue that the chancellorship has become too politicized in recent years.
9. He held the chancellorship for nearly a decade before stepping down.
10. The selection process for the chancellorship can be quite competitive and rigorous.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chancellorship>