

CHANGEABLE

Meaning: Changeable: capable of undergoing alteration or variation; subject to frequent changes.

1. The weather in this region is notoriously changeable, often shifting from sunshine to rain within minutes.
2. Her moods can be quite changeable, making it difficult to predict how she'll react in any given situation.
3. The changeable nature of fashion means that what is trendy today may be out of style tomorrow.
4. He has a changeable schedule, so it's best to confirm our plans closer to the date.
5. Changeable conditions on the hiking trail require us to be prepared for anything.
6. The stock market is often seen as changeable, influenced by a variety of economic factors.
7. His changeable opinions on the matter left his friends feeling confused and uncertain.
8. The landscape appears changeable throughout the seasons, showcasing different colors and textures.
9. Parents often find their teenagers' interests to be changeable, shifting from one hobby to another.
10. In a changeable world, adaptability becomes one of the most valuable skills to possess.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/changeable>