

CHANT

Meaning: CHANT: To sing or speak a phrase or song rhythmically and repetitively, often in a communal or ceremonial context.

1. The crowd began to chant in unison, creating an electrifying atmosphere.
2. As the sun set, the children gathered around the fire to chant traditional songs.
3. During the protest, the activists raised their voices to chant for change and justice.
4. The team's supporters would chant their victory song, no matter the outcome of the game.
5. In the ancient temple, monks would chant prayers to seek peace and enlightenment.
6. The rhythmic chant echoed through the hall, mesmerizing everyone present.
7. She felt a deep connection to her roots as she learned to chant in her native language.
8. At the concert, the audience started to chant the lyrics, igniting a sense of unity.
9. The coach encouraged the players to chant their team mantra before the big match.
10. In a moment of celebration, the community came together to chant their hopes for the future.
11. The crowd began to chant in unison, their voices echoing through the stadium.
12. During the ceremony, the monks raised their voices in a soothing chant that filled the air with peace.
13. As the march progressed, the participants started to chant slogans for equality and justice.
14. The children gathered around the campfire, eager to chant their favorite songs under the stars.
15. In ancient times, people would chant to invoke the spirits of their ancestors.
16. The coach encouraged the team to chant their rallying cry to boost morale before the game.
17. She found herself lost in the rhythmic chant of the waves crashing against the shore.
18. At the festival, a group of performers led the audience in a lively chant that got everyone involved.
19. The protestors stood firm, continuing to chant even as the rain began to pour.
20. In the quiet of the library, the only sound was the soft chant of a distant choir practicing.
21. The crowd began to chant in unison as the team entered the stadium.

22. She could hear the rhythmic chant echoing through the forest during the ceremony.
23. In the quiet of the night, the monks would often chant prayers for peace.
24. The protestors raised their voices to chant slogans demanding justice.
25. Around the campfire, the children learned to chant simple songs about nature.
26. During the festival, performers would chant traditional verses to celebrate their culture.
27. He felt a sense of unity as he joined the chant alongside other supporters.
28. The coach encouraged the players to chant their school spirit before the game.
29. With each chant, the energy in the room grew more intense and electric.
30. They decided to chant affirmations to boost their confidence before the presentation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chant>