

CHAPLESS

Meaning: Chapless: lacking companions or allies; solitary.

1. The story depicted a chapless hero who faced insurmountable odds without any allies.
2. In the grand scheme of the play, the chapless character provided a unique perspective on loneliness.
3. Despite being chapless, she carried herself with an air of confidence that inspired those around her.
4. The chapless wanderer roamed the streets, searching for purpose in a world that seemed indifferent.
5. He felt somewhat chapless at the gathering, surrounded by couples enjoying their romantic evenings.
6. Her chapless existence allowed her to focus on personal growth without distractions.
7. With nobody to rely on, his chapless journey taught him valuable lessons about self-sufficiency.
8. The chapless protagonist learned to navigate challenges with resilience and creativity.
9. In a society that values partnership, being chapless often led to feelings of isolation.
10. The film's depiction of a chapless existence resonated with viewers who appreciated its raw honesty.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chapless>