

CHARACTERISM

Meaning: Characterism refers to the distinctive traits or qualities that define an individual's personality, particularly in the context of character development in literature.

1. Characterism is often used to describe the unique traits that define an individual's personality.
2. In literature, characterism plays a crucial role in developing a believable protagonist.
3. The artist's characterism shines through in every piece he creates, reflecting his inner thoughts.
4. Understanding the characterism of a culture can lead to deeper appreciation and insight.
5. In psychology, characterism is studied to understand the motivations behind human behavior.
6. Her characterism was so captivating that it drew everyone into her stories.
7. The film's success hinged on the strong characterism of its lead actors.
8. Characterism can be shaped by a variety of factors, including environment and experience.
9. In discussions about identity, characterism often emerges as a key concept.
10. His characterism was a blend of charm and integrity, making him well-liked by everyone.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/characterism>