

CHARACTERIZATION

Meaning: Characterization is the process of creating and developing a character's traits, personality, and complexities in a narrative.

1. The characterization of the protagonist in the novel reveals her complexities and inner struggles.
2. Through vivid characterization, the author brings the supporting cast to life, making them memorable.
3. His characterization of the villain was so compelling that readers found themselves empathizing with him.
4. In film studies, characterization is often analyzed to understand how it influences audience perception.
5. The playwright's keen characterization added depth to the dialogue and enriched the overall narrative.
6. Characterization can be achieved through direct description or through the actions and dialogues of the characters.
7. Effective characterization is essential for creating relatable and dynamic figures in any storytelling medium.
8. The book's rich characterization allowed readers to connect emotionally with the characters' journeys.
9. She excelled in characterization, making even minor characters feel fully realized and authentic.
10. In literature, characterization serves as a critical tool for exploring themes and moral dilemmas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/characterization>