

CHARACTERIZE

Meaning: To describe or define the distinctive qualities or features of someone or something.

1. The author sought to characterize the protagonist through vivid descriptions and inner thoughts.
2. Scientists often characterize new species by examining their genetic makeup and physical traits.
3. In her speech, she aimed to characterize the challenges facing the community with clarity and compassion.
4. The way he interacts with others truly helps to characterize his personality as warm and inviting.
5. To characterize the painting, one must consider its use of color and emotional impact.
6. Historians often characterize the era as one of significant cultural and technological change.
7. The film does an excellent job of characterizing the antagonist as both menacing and complex.
8. Critics frequently characterize the novel as a poignant exploration of human relationships.
9. In order to characterize the climate of the region, scientists collected data over several years.
10. The study aimed to characterize the relationship between diet and mental health in adolescents.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/characterize>