

CHARGEABLENESS

Meaning: Chargeableness refers to the quality or condition of being liable or subject to being charged or incurred as an expense or fee.

1. The chargeableness of the expenses was scrutinized during the audit.
2. In legal terms, the chargeableness of a fee can determine its enforceability.
3. The accountant emphasized the importance of understanding the chargeableness of all transactions.
4. Investors often consider the chargeableness of liabilities when assessing a company's financial health.
5. The chargeableness of the project costs was clearly outlined in the proposal.
6. She questioned the chargeableness of the additional service fees listed in her bill.
7. The chargeableness of certain costs can vary based on jurisdiction and regulations.
8. Understanding the chargeableness of your tax deductions can lead to significant savings.
9. The committee reviewed the chargeableness of the proposed budget before making a decision.
10. He was surprised by the chargeableness of the maintenance fees associated with the lease.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chargeableness>