

CHARITABLENESS

Meaning: Charitableness refers to the quality of being generous and giving to those in need, often demonstrated through acts of kindness and philanthropy.

1. Her charitableness was evident in the way she volunteered at the shelter every weekend.
2. The community recognized his charitableness through awards and public appreciation.
3. Charitableness can sometimes be more valuable than wealth when it comes to making a difference.
4. She admired his charitableness, which inspired others to give back to the community.
5. The organization thrived on the charitableness of its donors and volunteers.
6. His charitableness was not limited to financial contributions; he also offered his time and expertise.
7. In times of crisis, charitableness becomes a vital source of support for those in need.
8. Her charitableness extended beyond just monetary gifts; she regularly organized food drives.
9. The spirit of charitableness filled the room as everyone gathered to support the fundraiser.
10. Charitableness can transform lives, fostering a sense of hope and community among the less fortunate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/charitableness>