

CHARITABLY

Meaning: CHARITABLY: in a manner that shows kindness and generosity, especially by giving to those in need.

1. She donated charitably to the local food bank every month.
2. The foundation was established to support those who give charitably to the community.
3. He spoke charitably about his competitors, acknowledging their hard work.
4. They charitably volunteered their time at the retirement home.
5. Her charitably nature made her well-loved among her peers.
6. The event was organized charitably to raise funds for disaster relief.
7. He acted charitably, offering help without expecting anything in return.
8. The organization encourages members to contribute charitably to various causes.
9. Many people charitably support the arts, recognizing its importance in society.
10. She viewed her wealth as a responsibility to be used charitably for others.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/charitably>