

CHARMLESS

Meaning: Charmless: lacking charm or appeal; unattractive or unengaging in personality.

1. His charm was absent, leaving him utterly charmless at the party.
2. Despite his impressive resume, his personality was disappointingly charmless.
3. The movie was entertaining, but the lead actor's performance was charmless.
4. She found his attempts at humor to be rather charmless and off-putting.
5. The restaurant had a charmless ambiance that detracted from the dining experience.
6. Even in a group of lively friends, he managed to remain charmless and aloof.
7. Her charmless demeanor made it difficult for her to connect with others.
8. The presentation was informative, but the speaker's style was rather charmless.
9. He spoke with such a charmless monotone that I struggled to stay engaged.
10. The charmless decor of the hotel room made it feel more like a prison than a retreat.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/charmless>