

CHASTISABLE

Meaning: Chastisable: deserving of punishment or reprimand for inappropriate behavior.

1. His behavior was deemed chastisable by the committee, leading to a formal reprimand.
2. In her eyes, the child's mischief was not chastisable but rather a sign of curiosity.
3. The teacher explained that while mistakes are common, repeated offenses are chastisable.
4. They argued that the lack of serious consequences made the actions less chastisable.
5. The judge ruled that the defendant's actions were indeed chastisable under the law.
6. Feeling that the punishment was too harsh, he questioned whether the act was truly chastisable.
7. In a world where empathy prevails, few actions are considered chastisable.
8. The strict code of conduct made any breach chastisable, regardless of intent.
9. Her perspective was that personal growth should not be chastisable, even when mistakes are made.
10. The organization revised its guidelines to clarify what behaviors were considered chastisable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chastisable>