

CHASTISEMENT

Meaning: Chastisement refers to the act of scolding or reprimanding someone, often for a mistake or misbehavior.

1. The teacher's chastisement for the late submission was unexpected.
2. He felt that the chastisement he received was too harsh for a minor mistake.
3. After the chastisement, she reflected on her actions and vowed to do better.
4. His public chastisement left her feeling embarrassed and humiliated.
5. The coach's chastisement motivated the team to improve their performance.
6. She took the chastisement to heart and made an effort to change her behavior.
7. Despite the chastisement, he remained determined to pursue his dreams.
8. Her chastisement of his careless mistake was meant to teach him a lesson.
9. They were not prepared for the chastisement that followed their reckless decision.
10. In the end, the chastisement served as a turning point in his life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chastisement>