

CHATTERER

Meaning: Chatterer: a person who talks incessantly or excessively, often in a trivial or superficial manner.

1. The incessant chatterer at the party made it hard to hear the music.
2. Her reputation as a chatterer preceded her, making introductions unnecessary.
3. Every group has a chatterer who keeps the conversation lively and engaging.
4. While some preferred silence, the chatterer thrived in the lively atmosphere of the café.
5. As a chatterer, he could easily break the ice and bring strangers together.
6. The little parrot was a notorious chatterer, mimicking every sound it heard.
7. Being a chatterer, she often found herself in the center of attention at gatherings.
8. His chatterer nature sometimes annoyed his friends, especially during quiet moments.
9. The chatterer's stories, though amusing, often went on for far too long.
10. Caught in a conversation with a chatterer, time seemed to slip away unnoticed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chatterer>