CHATTINESS

Meaning: Chattiness refers to the quality of being talkative or inclined to engage in conversation.

1. Her chattiness often made social gatherings lively and enjoyable.
2. The child's chattiness was both charming and exhausting for the adults around her.
3. During the meeting, his chattiness distracted everyone from the main agenda.
4. She was known for her chattiness, which could turn a dull evening into an unforgettable night.
5. His chattiness revealed a genuine excitement about the topic they were discussing.
6. Although her chattiness was endearing, it occasionally caused her to miss important details.
7. The professor's chattiness during lectures kept students engaged and eager to learn.
8. Some people find her chattiness overwhelming, while others appreciate her warmth.
9. Chattiness can sometimes mask feelings of insecurity in social situations.
10. Despite his usual chattiness, he fell silent when the serious topic arose.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chattiness