

CHAUVINISM

Meaning: Chauvinism is an excessive or prejudiced loyalty or support for one's own group, often accompanied by a disdain for other groups, particularly in the context of gender or national identity.

1. Chauvinism can manifest in both subtle and overt ways in society.
2. Many people are unaware of the chauvinism that influences their daily interactions.
3. The discussion highlighted how chauvinism often perpetuates gender inequality.
4. His chauvinism was evident in the way he dismissed female contributions in meetings.
5. Educational programs aim to combat chauvinism and promote equality among genders.
6. Chauvinism can undermine teamwork and collaboration in the workplace.
7. The novel critiques the chauvinism prevalent in its historical context.
8. Chauvinism is not limited to men; women can also exhibit chauvinistic attitudes.
9. Addressing chauvinism requires a collective effort from all members of society.
10. The rise of social media has brought many instances of chauvinism to light.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chauvinism>