

CHAW

Meaning: Chaw (noun): A chew or mouthful of tobacco or food.

1. He took a long chaw of tobacco before speaking.
2. The old farmer enjoyed a hearty chaw while resting in the shade.
3. With each chaw, he felt the familiar burn of nicotine.
4. She watched him take a chaw and wondered how he could stand it.
5. After a vigorous debate, he settled down with a chaw of his favorite brand.
6. The smell of chewing tobacco filled the air as he took another chaw.
7. He spat out the remnants of his chaw, aiming for the nearby spittoon.
8. A chaw of gum was all she needed to freshen her breath.
9. They joked about his large chaw as they played cards late into the night.
10. He offered me a chaw, but I politely declined, preferring mints instead.
11. At the picnic, he offered everyone a chaw of gum.
12. The old man sat on the porch, enjoying a chaw from his pipe.
13. She grimaced as she watched him take a chaw of his favorite jerky.
14. After every meal, he would have a chaw of mint to freshen his breath.
15. The young boy watched his grandfather take a chaw and smiled.
16. He always kept a chaw of chewing tobacco tucked in his pocket.
17. During the hike, they paused to have a chaw of trail mix.
18. She handed him a chaw of bubblegum to keep him quiet.
19. The fisherman took a chaw of his bait as he prepared to cast his line.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chaw>