

CHECKROLL

Meaning: Checkroll: A record or list of payments made to employees, typically detailing wages and deductions, often used for payroll processing.

1. The accountant meticulously reviewed the checkroll to ensure all entries were accurate.
2. Every employee eagerly awaited the arrival of the checkroll at the end of the month.
3. To avoid errors, the manager encouraged team members to double-check the checkroll before submitting it.
4. A discrepancy was found in the checkroll, prompting an immediate audit.
5. The checkroll is essential for maintaining transparent financial records within the company.
6. When preparing the checkroll, it's crucial to account for overtime hours and deductions.
7. The HR department is responsible for compiling the checkroll each pay period.
8. She felt a sense of relief when the checkroll was finally processed without any issues.
9. During the meeting, they discussed ways to streamline the checkroll process for efficiency.
10. He was surprised to see an unexpected bonus reflected in the latest checkroll.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/checkroll>