

CHELIDONIC

Meaning: Chelidonic refers to a class of chemical compounds derived from certain plants, noted for their potential pharmacological effects.

1. Chelidonic compounds have shown promising effects in recent pharmacological studies.
2. The researchers were fascinated by the chelidonic properties of the newly discovered plant.
3. In traditional medicine, chelidonic extracts were often used to treat various ailments.
4. Scientists are exploring the chelidonic mechanism behind the plant's unique healing abilities.
5. The vibrant color of the chelidonic flowers attracted many pollinators in the garden.
6. Her interest in chelidonic chemistry led her to pursue a career in botany.
7. The chelidonic alkaloids were isolated for further analysis in the laboratory.
8. Many herbalists rely on the chelidonic qualities of certain plants to create effective remedies.
9. The chelidonic essence was used in the formulation of natural skin care products.
10. Understanding the chelidonic properties can enhance our approach to sustainable agriculture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chelidonic>