

CHEQUE

Meaning: A cheque is a written order directing a bank to pay a specified amount of money from the writer's account to the person named on the cheque.

1. She wrote a cheque to cover the cost of the repairs.
2. After receiving the cheque, he felt a wave of relief wash over him.
3. The company only accepted payments made through bank transfer, not by cheque.
4. I lost the cheque I had received for my birthday, which was quite disappointing.
5. He handed me a cheque as a gesture of goodwill for my help.
6. Writing a cheque can sometimes take longer than simply using a credit card.
7. She was surprised to see that the cheque had cleared much faster than expected.
8. The landlord requested a cheque for the security deposit before we moved in.
9. I always keep a record of all the cheques I write to avoid confusion later.
10. The bank offers a service that allows you to cash a cheque without a fee.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cheque>