

CHICANER

Meaning: Chicaner (noun): a person who engages in deceitful or manipulative tactics, especially in legal or political contexts.

1. The lawyer was accused of being a chicaner, using deceptive tactics to win the case.
2. Debate over the ethics of a chicaner in politics often engenders heated discussions.
3. Her chicaner tactics during negotiations left her opponents bewildered and frustrated.
4. The film portrayed the protagonist as a clever chicaner, always one step ahead of the law.
5. In a world full of honesty, a chicaner stands out as a master of manipulation.
6. He played the role of a chicaner perfectly, weaving lies that captivated the audience.
7. The chicaner managed to escape the consequences of his actions through cunning strategy.
8. Critics labeled the author a chicaner for the misleading claims made in his latest book.
9. Many admired the chicaner's wit, even if they disapproved of his methods.
10. In legal circles, a chicaner is often viewed with suspicion and disdain.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chicaner>