

CHICANERY

Meaning: Chicanery refers to the use of trickery or deceit, especially in legal or political matters.

1. The politician's campaign was marred by accusations of chicanery.
2. Despite the chicanery involved in the deal, he still managed to profit handsomely.
3. Her reputation suffered due to the chicanery that took place during the negotiations.
4. Chicanery in the financial sector can lead to devastating consequences for investors.
5. The magician's tricks were little more than chicanery, fooling the unsuspecting audience.
6. They uncovered a web of chicanery that undermined the integrity of the election.
7. His chicanery was an attempt to mislead his rivals and gain an unfair advantage.
8. The report highlighted instances of chicanery that had been overlooked for years.
9. To expose the chicanery, the journalist conducted a thorough investigation into the company.
10. While some viewed his tactics as clever, others labeled them outright chicanery.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chicanery>